WATER NOTICES.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the South Kootenay Water Power Company is a company incorporated by chapter 62 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1897, and is thereby empowered to construct and operate works for the utilization of water:

And whereas the said Company did on the 18th day of June, 1930, apply for a licence to divert and use 200 cubic feet of water per second from Goat River, a tributary of Kootenay River, in the Nelson Water District, for power purpose:

And whereas the said Company has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking relative to the aforesaid application:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Company's said petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the South Kootenay Water Power Company relative to the diversion and use of 200 cubic feet of water per second from Goat River for power purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition of the said Company filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on the 30th of June, 1930, is hereby approved, subject to the terms and conditions of the "Water Act" and to the following terms and conditions:—

The term of every licence that may be issued in pursuance of the Company's above-mentioned application shall be limited to expire fifty years from the date of issue of the licence first issued in pursuance of the said application.

The construction of the works necessary to divert and utilize the said water shall be commenced by the 1st day of July, 1931, and shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights.

The territory within which the said Company may distribute and sell the electrical energy generated by it from the waters of the Goat River shall be that portion of the Province of British Columbia lying within a circle having the power-house, to be erected in connection with the undertaking, as centre and having a radius of 25 miles, including the Village of Creston.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 23rd day of December, 1930.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session, on behalf of the City of Vancouver, for an Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921," in the manner following, to provide by such amendments for the following powers, that is to say:—

1. To amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act" to provide for the cancelling of election proceedings on the death of any candidate nominated before the close of the polls, and for fixing another day for the nomination and election of a candidate for the office to which such candidate had been nominated.

2. To amend the said Act to provide for including on the assessment roll for the purpose of information and record all exempt parcels of land in addition to each and every rateable parcel of land, and to authorize the Assessment Commissioner and assistants to enter at all reasonable times upon any property or premises subject to assessment in order to ascertain a proper appraisal of the land and improvements thereon.

3. To amend the said Act to provide for the assessment of the right or interest of any occupant of Crown lands where the same are occupied otherwise than in an official capacity, on the basis that such lands shall be taxed at their actual cash value, as set out in section 39 of said Act, as if the occupant were the actual owner thereof during the period of such occupancy.

4. To amend the said Act to provide that notice of complaint in respect to the assessment roll shall be given in writing to the City Clerk at least fourteen clear days before the date appointed for the sitting of the Court of Revision.

5. To amend the said Act to provide for the establishment and constitution of an Assessment Board of Appeals having appellate jurisdiction over decisions of the Court of Revision in respect to rateable property in lieu of a Judge of the Supreme Court, such Board of Appeal to consist of three expert valuers.

6. To amend the said Act to provide for the assessing of and levying rates on the poles, cables, conduits, and wires of any telephone, telegraph, electric light, or electric power company, and the tracks, rails, poles, and wires of any tramway company, and the materials, buildings, and plant used in connection therewith, and the pipes, wires, tanks, and reservoirs of any gas or heating company.

7. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting or regulating, controlling, licensing, limiting, and restricting the lands, sites, links, or grounds used in connection with miniature golf-courses, or golf-courses of less than 20 acres in area.

8. To amend the said Act to provide for installing and locating traffic-markers and traffic-control signals and indicators in, on, or about any part of any street or public place.

9. To amend the said Act to provide for aiding and assisting by annual money grant or otherwise, as the Council may deem expedient, any organization, institution, or association organized or incorporated for the purpose of creating or establishing and disbursing a general community fund for the benefit of charity or charitable institutions or hospitals within the city.

10. To amend the said Act to provide for regulating, controlling, limiting, or prohibiting objectionable or unnecessary noises in places of amusement or in other public or private places or premises.

11. To amend the said Act to provide for regulating the collection and disposal of waste materials and junk, or any noxious or unsanitary or objectionable material, and to provide for the cleansing and sterilizing thereof.

12. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting, controlling, and regulating the use of fumigating-chemicals and poison-gas, and the storage or transportation of the same.

13. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting or controlling and regulating the installation, construction, or use of domestic refrigerator plants in which any poisonous refrigerant is used, and swimming-pools or tanks for public use.

14. To amend the said Act to provide that where one side only of any street has already been paved and the cost thereof assessed as a local improvement against the property benefited on both sides of such street, or has been paid out of general funds of the city, the Council may, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, on the recommendations of the City Engineer and City Comptroller, and without adopting the formalities required by this Act or any by-law, carry out similar work as a local improvement on the opposite side of such street, and may assess the cost thereof on the property benefited thereby on both sides of any such street.

15. To amend the said Act to provide for the continuous auditing of all accounts affecting the city.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 8th day of December, 1930.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares.

The address of its registered office is 507 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To manufacture, buy, sell, import, export, and deal in, as wholesaler or as retailer, all goods, wares, and merchandise of all kinds whatsoever, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, to manufacture, buy, sell, import, export, and deal in materials and equipment for the prevention and fighting of fire of every kind whatsoever, including, but not so as to limit the generality of the foregoing, all kinds of hose, hose-carts, hydrants, chemicals, chemical-containers, dispensers, motor-trucks and automobiles, alarms and extinguishing systems, whether automatic, electrical, or otherwise:

(b.) To install fire-alarms and fire-extinguishing systems, and to provide for an inspection service of the same and of all other equipment sold or installed by the Company, subject, however, to the provisions of the "Fire Marshal Act" and the "Electrical Energy Inspection Act" of the Province of British Columbia:

(c.) To act as agents for the sale of, upon commission, consignment, or otherwise, goods, warehouse products, and merchandise of any kind and nature whatsoever, and to do a general commission merchant's merchandise brokerage, selling agent's and factor's business in goods, wares, and merchandise:

(d.) For the purposes aforesaid, to build, repair, maintain, acquire, purchase, own, hold, and deal with all such buildings, works, property, machinery, and appliances as may be required in connection with the business of the Company:

(e.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1924," or any other Statute or regulation in force in any part of the world:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise steamboats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, aeroplanes, air-ships, or any other kind of boats, vessels, ships, or planes whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats, vessels, ships, or planes as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company, and to use, maintain, or operate the same for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purposes whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(h.) To acquire and hold shares in any railway or tramway or transportation company:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To conduct and carry on any and all business of the corporation; to exercise any and all of its corporate powers and rights; to have one or more offices, and to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property in any of the Provinces and Territories of the Dominion of Canada and in any and all foreign countries.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

Registrar of Companies.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 1882.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "United Church Oriental Missions" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this sixteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To acquire, establish, maintain, and operate churches, missions, schools, seminaries of religious learning, and other institutions, buildings, or property, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada where the Society may be authorized by law, for the purpose of carrying on religious work among the Oriental people in Canada:

(b.) To preach and teach the word of God as contained in the Old and New Testament Scriptures, commonly known as the Holy Bible; the preaching, teaching, and interpretation of the said Scriptures shall conform to the statement of doctrine contained in the twenty articles of belief incorporated in the Basis of Union of The United Church of Canada:

(c.) To teach the English language and such other languages and courses of study as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing objects:

(d.) To acquire, maintain, hold, operate, manage, and sell or otherwise dispose of real and personal property for the purposes of the Society, and to erect, maintain, and operate thereon churches, parsonages, seminaries of learning, colleges, schools, kindergartens, chapels, dormitories, gymnasia, residences for students, faculty, and management, hospitals or other buildings or institutions as may be necessary or advisable to carry out the objects of the Society:

(c.) To print, publish, and circulate Bibles, Christian literature, courses of study, and other writings:

(f.) To collect, receive, pay out, and distribute money for the purposes of the Society without profit:

(g.) To do all things which are necessary, incidental, or conducive to the attainment of or for carrying out the objects of the Society:

(h.) To hold, manage, maintain, sell, and convey all property, real and personal, which shall be acquired by the Society in trust for The United Church of Canada, so that when this Society ceases to exist all the property thereof shall and is hereby declared to be vested in the said Church:

(i.) To exercise such powers for carrying on the Oriental mission-work of The United Church of Canada as are assigned to this Society by The Board of Home Missions of the said Church.

(21.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(22.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(23.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(24.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(25.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(26.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company; to lend money to the shareholders of the Company or any one or more of them with or without security:

(27.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(28.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(29.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(30.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(31.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(32.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(33.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(34.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(35.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(36.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(37.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(38.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclauses of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one hundred thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 822 Rogers Building, 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over from Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), the business formerly carried on by it as Provincial agent for British Columbia of the Crown Life Assurance Company and any and all other agencies and the good-will thereof, and also all other assets of any nature whatsoever formerly owned and possessed by said Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), and to pay therefor the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in fully paid-up and non-assessable stock to the shareholders of Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), as follows, that is to say: Forty-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine (49,999) shares to Brenton S. Brown (being the shares hereby subscribed for), one (1) share to W. C. Brown (being the share hereby subscribed for), and fifty thousand (50,000) shares to Charles E. Campbell; and to assume the liabilities of said Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), all in accordance with special resolution of said Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), passed the 23rd day of December, 1930:

(b.) To engage fully and to the fullest extent of the term in the business of insurance brokers and agents, whether the same be life, marine, accident, automobile, fire, or casualty insurance, and any and all kinds of insurance, the intention of these presents being to confer upon the Company the fullest powers of acting as insurance-brokers:

(c.) To employ agents and office-help in connection with the securing, acquiring, and production of such businesses, and to pay the necessary remuneration therefor:

(d.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company or the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated:

(e.) To amalgamate with, undertake, or otherwise acquire the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to hold shares in any other company, and to enter into partnership or other arrangement for sharing profits with any person, firm, or corporation:

(f.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, or to amalgamate with any other company or corporation, now or hereafter incorporated, having objects in common or in part similar to those of this Company:

(g.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph:

(h.) It is fully agreed and understood and it is a term of the incorporation of this Company that the fifty thousand (50,000) shares of Charles E. Campbell are impressed with and subject to all liens, charges, and claims to which his shares in Brenton S. Brown, Limited (in voluntary liquidation), are subject, and shall be issued to Brenton S.
